

Roles and responsibilities

Whether you're reporting a pothole, planning a party in the village hall, or concerned about antisocial behaviour — here's how to get help from the right place.

Stokenchurch Parish Council are your local voice, working to keep our community vibrant, safe, and well-run.

We look after:

- Village halls, recreation grounds, allotments, and cemeteries
- Consultee on planning applications and sharing local views
- Benches, bus shelters, noticeboards, and litter bins
- Organising community events
- Consulting residents and supporting local groups
- Creating local policies and funding projects
- To hire Longburrow Hall please contact our Admin Officer
- If you would like to contact the Parish Council, please email the Parish Clerk

Buckinghamshire Council are the main authority for services across the county — from roads to rubbish.

They handle:

- Road repairs, streetlights, and signage: FixMyStreet
- Environmental health (noise, smells, pests, housing conditions): Environmental health, climate change and ecology | Buckinghamshire Council
- Waste and recycling collections: Waste and recycling | Buckinghamshire Council
- Planning decisions and building control: Simple Search
- Schools: Schools and learning | Buckinghamshire Council
- Children and Families: Care for children and families | Buckinghamshire Council
- Social Care for Adults: Care for adults | Buckinghamshire Council
- Licensing (alcohol, taxis, street trading): Business licences and permits | Buckinghamshire Council
- Antisocial behaviour (non-criminal nuisance): How to report and tackle anti-social behaviour | Buckinghamshire Council

Thames Valley Police (TVP) deals with crime and public safety.

They respond to:

- Criminal antisocial behaviour (harassment, vandalism, drug activity)
- Neighbourhood policing and community safety
- Community Trigger reviews for unresolved ASB
- Call 101 or visit TVP online to report crime or serious concerns.